Statement dated 5-3-1953 of M. Narayani Amma widow of Prohibition Guard No. 228, K. Kunhiraman Nambiar, recorded by the Revenue Inspector of Mangalore A.

Head about Mangalore Tahsildar's M. Ref 1611/53 dated 24-2-53. My husband K. Kunhirama Nambiar, Prohibition Guard No. 228 expired on 3-1-53 at 7.30. A.M at the age of 54 years. He has left behind him myself and my eight children, the particulars of whom are furnished in the G.T. prepared by the Revenue Inspector today. The G.T. is correct to the best of my knowledge. My husband has served in the Department for more than 25 years. Prior to his death he was laid up for about 11 months, suffering from Tuberculosis. He was on leave during this period. My husband though a native of Payashi village of North Malabar, he was all along serving in South Kanara District for the last about 25 years and he has no connection at all with his native place in North Malabar. His parents are not living. He had a brother named Ananda Nambiar who was residing in his home village at Payashi and I do not know his whereabouts now. My husband and ~~family~~ were not in correspondance with him for the last about ten years and I do not know whether he is dead or alive now. My husband's family have no property (both immovable or movable) in his native place. Here too my husband has left no immovable properties. He had not insured his life and was not also a subscriber to the G.P.F. During his sickness from to his death, myself and my son Shankaran Nambiar had to incur debts to the extent of about Rs 1000/- to meet the treatment charges, doctor's bill, diet etc. My husband had not saved anything during his life time as he had to maintain a large family consisting of eight children with his petty salary. He has not left behind him any assets. Now I have still to repay debts of Rs 570/- taken on hand loan from the following persons during the sickness of my husband prior to his death:- 1. Rs 200/- taken on hand loan from Sri T.V. Raman Nair, Nandagudde Road, Attavar. 2. Rs 120/- taken on hand loan from T.P. Raman, Contractor Urva, Mangalore. 3. Rs 250/- taken on hand loan from Seethu Hengsu our present land lady at Ullal. There are no documentary evidences for the above loans and they have been given on good faith. I am not at all in a position to clear off these debts in my present position. I am living in a rented house in Ullal with my six children, No 5 to 10 in the G.I. My son Shanker Nambiar and my daughter Laxmi are now working as temporary teachers in the local, Nageswara school, Ullal, the former getting a salary of Rs 20/- and the latter Rs 10/- and I have to maintain the entire family with the above income of my two children. Their appointments will case in April next as both of them are employed temporarily being entrained. In these days of high cost of living it is impossible to maintain this big family of mine with the above income without incurring further debts. My eldest daughter Yashoda is staying at Kolar (Mysore State) with her husband P.S. Gopalkrishnan, who is a Mechanic. My son-in-law is not at all in a position to give me any financial help as his income is hardly sufficient to meet his family expenses. My son Balakrishnan is staying with him at Kolar, who is unemployed. Though my origin is also from Malabar, my parents were living in this District since about fifty years and I have no connection at all with Malabar now. My parents are no more. I have an elder brother, M. Narayana Nambiar, who is working as a Prohibition Guard (No. 258) at Manjeshwar Station. He is also not in a position to help me as he has to maintain his own family with the petty salary he is drawing. I have no immovable or movable properties. We are governed by the Marumakkathayam law of succession. Taking into consideration, the present miserable plight of myself and my children. I request that a suitable amount may be sanctioned to me as compassionate gratuity to enable me to repay my debts, educate my children and maintain my family. I also request that the arrears of pay due to my late husband may be disbursed to me. My two major children, Shankaran Nambiar, and Laxmi, who are with me have no objection for the payment of the arrears of pay to me. My elder brother Balakrishnan who is now residing at Kolar (Mysore State) have also no objection for the disbursement of the arrears of the pay to me and he has already submitted his written consent statement before the District Prohibition Officer in the matter. Read out to me, translated into Malyalam and found correct.

2. The deceased K. Thekkiamma Nambiar has left behind her his widow Narayani Amma and eight children particulars of whom are furnished in the G.T. enclosed. Enquiries reveals that the deceased is a native of Payyathi village in North Malabar, such that he was residing all along in South Kanara for the last about 25 years and that he had no connection with his native place in North Malabar. The widow of the deceased is living in a rented house at Ullal with her six children. No. 3 in the G.T. Yashoda is married and is living with her husband at Kalar (Mysore State). No. 4 Balan Thekkan aged 22 years is said to be living with her sister Yashoda at Kalar and is reported to be unemployed. No. 5 Shankar Nambiar aged 20 years is employed as a driver by ~~maintained~~ maintained teacher on a pay of Rs. 38/- p.m. including allowances in the Allad Rogavenna Higher Edn. School. No. 6 Laxmi aged 18 years is also working as a provisional instructress (temporary) in the same school on a pay of Rs. 26/- p.m. including allowances. She has studied upto ~~8~~ IV boom. Both the parents are ~~and the father is~~ expected to earn by the end of this month when she will be thrown out of employment. Nos. 7 to 9 are attending the school.

3. The deceased has left no ~~immovable~~ immovable or immovable properties Enquiry also reveals that the had not insured his life and that he was not a contributor to the G.P.F. It is with great difficulty the was maintaining his family with his measly pay as Prohibition guard. In my enquiries I am satisfied that he had not saved anything during his life time.
The deceased was ailing from T.B. for about a year. His wife states that she has to incur debts to the extent of about Rs. 1000/- 19 to meet the treatment and discharges of the husband during his illness, out of which the has to repay Rs. 570/- still to the following persons:-

Sri T.V. Raman Nair, Nandigudde Road, Addanad } Rs. 200/- Sri T.A. Raman, Urwa Rs. 120/- Smt. Sathi Seethu, Urwa Rs. 250/-.

There is no documentary evidence in support of these debts, but I am satisfied after due enquiry that the widow of the deceased is in the said debts.

4. Except the pay of the two children referred to above, there is absolutely no other source of income to the family at present. As stated, if the two of the earning members of the family are thrown out of employment this month, the widow of the deceased will be placed in a very hard position for the maintenance of the family and the education of the minor children. It is a fact that by the (illegible) demise of the deceased, on the verge of this retirement, the family is put in a distressed and miserable condition. Enquiry also reveals that there are no near relations of the family who are either bound nor in a position to help the family. I consider that this is a deserving case for the payment of maximum gratuity admissible under the rules to the widow of the deceased. The amount if sanctioned may be paid at the Dh. Tharangambadi.

5. The family of the deceased is governed by the Marumakkathayam law of succession under which the wife and children are the legal heirs to the self acquired assets of the deceased. Hence the arrears of pay and other allowances due to the deceased have to be paid to the wife and children of the deceased. The widows of the deceased request that the amount may be paid to her as the major children have no objection for the same and the minor children are under her care. Nos. 5 & 6 in the G.T. have given their consent statement herein for the payment to their mother. Nos 3 & 4 are away at Kolar and their addresses are furnished in the G.T. If they have no objection, the arrears of pay and allowances may be disbursed to the widow of the deceased.

The ~~Hon~~ brothers Narain child[illegible] No. 1 & 2 7 to 10 in the Cy. J. are living with their mother and they are under the Care and protection of their mother.
